Dear Support Service Member in EVS,

We know that the last couple of years of have been challenging for EVS and that you have been working short staffed and the situation has not gotten any better with COVID.

Recently, Pat Tarini has discussed with you the changing of your schedule and that the full-time staff will have to start working weekends.

We have heard your concerns and continue to meet with management on these matters.

I would like to reassure you that the union executive has been having discussions with management about EVS including the vacancies, the workload, the recruitment challenges, and the schedule.

We would like to have a discussion with you to inform you of what we have been doing and what you can also do moving forward to help the executive.

We will be having a special meeting where you can call in from the comfort of your home and we can have a conversation.

THE MEETING WILL BE HELD ON JANUARY 5TH AT 7 PM. VIA ZOOM. You can either call in or attend via your computer. The number to call in is as follows:
